

SANCTUARY ON CAMELBACK MOUNTAIN HOSTS WINE AND CHEESE TASTING JUNE 6 TO BENEFIT WINGS TO FLY
Non-Profit Prepares Young Women to Soar in Life

PHOENIX -- Help young women soar in life by attending a wine and cheese tasting and silent auction event benefiting Wings to Fly, a national non-profit organization that promotes life-long self esteem in young women.

The fundraising event will be held from 6 to 9 p.m. June 6 at Sanctuary on Camelback Mountain, 5700 E. McDonald Drive in Paradise Valley, Ariz.

Founded by Renie Cavallari, CEO of Aspire, Wings to Fly emphasizes healthy choices for young women and effects positive change by providing one-week educational camps. The camps focus on the emotional, physical, spiritual and financial lives of young women ages 10 to 17, integrating inspiration and guidance enabling the development of qualities essential for becoming the leaders of tomorrow.

Silent auction items will include ski trips, resort and spa getaways, a Santa Fe vacation, dining excursions and more.

The Wings to Fly wine and cheese event is being sponsored by Sanctuary on Camelback Mountain. One of the country's most lauded luxury resorts, Sanctuary is a striking boutique property. Under the direction of Westroc Hospitality, Sanctuary enjoys international acclaim for its contemporary design, and award-winning elements restaurant and Sanctuary Spa.

Alliance Beverage will serve as the major wine sponsor for the charity event.

The cost to attend is $75 per person. All proceeds will benefit Wings to Fly. Reservations are required by calling Jill Clark at 480-607-2375.
